

Side Event of the World Water Forum on
 “Training and capacity building for water professionals”
 Thursday 16 April, 10h00-11h30
 Daegu EXCO, French Pavilion

The French offers of professional training for management of the small water cycle (water and sanitation services): a wide range of expertise in the transfer of skills from field workers and operators to the leaders.

The interpretation will be provided between English and French.

10 min	Introduction. Professional training in water and sanitation. International experiences of the International Office for Water's Water Training Center (CNFME). Joseph PRONOST, Director, CNFME (IOWater)
10 min	The Rand Water Academy creation. Wayida MOHAMED, Human Resource Manager, Rand Water Academy, South Africa
10 min	Projects of the French Development Agency in training for water professionals. Stéphanie LEYRONAS, Head “water and environment program”, Research Division, AFD (French Development Agency)
10 min	Experience in capacity building of water professionals: the example of Société des Eaux de Marseille. Catherine LAGARDE, Director, Social responsibility department, Société des Eaux de Marseille
10 min	Developing leadership in water and sanitation services Jean-Antoine FABY, Director of the Chair « Water for all », AgroParisTech.
10 min	Training managers to increase service performance, Sim SITHA, MD of Water Phnom Penh Water Supply Authority, Cambodia
30 min	Questions/answers